SUPERINTENDENT'S PRESS RELEASE

Henry V. Wagner, Jr., Ed.D., Superintendent

DATE: September 8, 2011

Community Liaison Group Announced

As part of our ongoing efforts to strengthen the ties between our community and Dorchester County Public Schools, the Community and Human Relations Subcommittee of the Superintendent's Advisory Council is pleased to announce the creation of the Community Liaison Group. These individuals, who are well-known to the Dorchester community, have volunteered to be available to members of the public as links to the school system. Among the services a liaison might provide are:

- Directing a citizen to the best sources of information.
- Directing a citizen on how to appeal a decision.
- Explaining basic policies and procedures.

The individuals who have kindly volunteered to be a part of this Community Liaison Group are:

- Rev. George Ames, Pastor of Wesley Chapel
- Chief Ken Malik, Chief of Cambridge Police Department
- Mr. James Pinkett, President of the Dorchester NAACP
- Hon. Victoria Jackson-Stanley, Mayor of City of Cambridge
- Hon. Brett Wilson, Judge of Circuit Court
- Charlene Jones, Health Department

Citizens may reach one of these liaisons by utilizing the following communication tools. Dial the Community Liaison contact phone line at 410-943-3694 and or email communitycontact@dcpmsmd.org.

Please tell us in your message if you have a preferred Liaison Group contact.
