SUPERINTENDENT'S PRESS RELEASE

Henry V. Wagner Jr., Ed.D., Superintendent

DATE: October 12, 2011

Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Hotline Announced

As part of Dorchester County Public Schools' ongoing efforts to protect the resources entrusted to the school system by the taxpayers of Dorchester County and State of Maryland, Dorchester County Public Schools is pleased to announce the implementation of the Fraud, Waste, and Abuse Telephone and E-mail Hotline. These two communication tools will provide citizens and employees with two user-friendly methods to communicate any instances of fraud, waste, or abuse related to the operations of the school system.

Reports of concerns may be made confidentially by:

Calling: 410-901-6958 or

E-mail: reportwaste@dcpsmd.org

Please tell us in your message:

- What is the nature of the fraud, waste, or abuse?
- Who do you believe is responsible for the fraud, waste, or abuse?
- When the fraud, waste, or abuse occurred?
- How the fraud, waste, or abuse occurred?
- Where the fraud, waste, or abuse occurred?

And any other pertinent details.

The school system will fully investigate all concerns to assure proper use of school system resources. All inquiries will be kept confidential.

For more details, please contact, Gary McCabe, Assistant Superintendent for Administration, 410-221-1111x1014.
