SUPERINTENDENT'S PRESS RELEASE

Henry V. Wagner Jr., Ed.D., Superintendent

DATE: January 10, 2012

Four Mace's Lane Middle School Students to Attend Leadership Conference

Officials at Mace's Lane Middle School report that eighth graders Emory Wongus, Abby Doty, Kailee Bullock, and Katelyn Brooks will participate in the National Young Leaders State Conference in Washington, D.C. February 23 – 26. The program, sponsored by the Congressional Youth Leadership Council, affords participants the opportunity to develop their leadership capacities in a variety of settings.

Students will interact with peers from around the region, participate in workshops, and listen to speakers in order to understand and use vision, respond to peer pressure, set goals, identify steps to achieve goals, and develop their leadership skills.

Wongus, Doty, Bullock, and Brooks were nominated by counselor Peggy Rabenstine as a result of their high academic standing at Mace's Lane, their demonstrated leadership skills, and their altruistic perception of the future.
