Maple Students Chosen for Maryland Art Education Association's BWI Exhibit

Artworks by Shayla Collins and Adrienne Kane are among the work included in an exhibit at the Youth Gallery at Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport. The art for this exhibit was juried by representatives from the Maryland Art Education Association (MAEA).

The theme for this exhibit was "Colors." Adrienne and Shayla each completed colorful oil pastel flowers in the style of Georgia O'Keeffe. Ms. Nancy Hebb, Art Teacher at Maple Elementary, received a personal e-mail from Suzanne Owens, coordinator for the exhibit, stating that the O'Keeffe style oil pastel flowers made a lovely addition to the show.

Adrienne and Shayla will be invited to visit the exhibit to see their artwork on display and they will receive a certificate of recognition at a reception in the spring. The show will be on display until June of 2012.
